The Federal CARES Act was signed into law March 27, 2020. The Act provides Pand Unemployment Assistance (PUA) and Residents ot

Are you someone not eligible for traditional Unemployment Benefits? Ask yourself these questions and follow these steps to receive PUA benefits.

eligible for regular unemployment

SECON Do you answees to one of the following questions:

- x Did your place of employment close due to TOVID
- x Are you unable to go to your job because you are being advisadattise?
- x Are you now taking care of a child or household member no longer able to att theirschool or facility because of @OValDatheir attendance is required for you to be able to work?
- x Are you unable to reach your place of employment due190? COVID
- x Didyou quit your job because of C197/21D
- x Have you or a member of your household been diagnosed ₩₱₱ COVID
- x Are you now the main support for your household because the head of house died from COVID9?
- x Are you experiencing symptoms of -COValDd seinling diagnosis?
- x Are you providing care for a family or household member √1191? COVID
- x Were you scheduled to begin working but no longer have that job or cannot r because of COV1D?

How to Applyin Maryland? (FOLLOW THIS PROCESS)

Maryland has created the BEACON-Strop application where Claimants can use the application to file ALL claims for regular unemployment benefits and PUA applicatio

Find Application at https://beacon.labor.maryland.gov/beacon/claiage:httml

GeneralInformation Needed for Claiming Unemployment Benefits:

- x Your Social Security number
- x Your address, telephone number, and email address
- x If you were in the military within the 18months, your DD2-11/41ember 4 document
- x If you are a former Federal Governme Employee Form 50 or8$ff available
- x Name, Date of Birth, and Social Secur number for each dependent

Because you are filing a PUA application, additionatormation may be required: If you are selfemployed, an independent contractor, or a gig worker, acceptable